

RABBI PRESENTS JEWS PROBLEMS

Jerome Mark of Temple Emanuel, Davenport, Gives Series of Talks on Reconstruction.

Acting on the theory that there are numerous problems and changes confronting the Jews of today, Rabbi Jerome Mark of Temple Emanuel, Davenport, announces he will give a series of three special talks or sermons for the benefit of the tri-city people, beginning to-night.

The following notice is sent by Rabbi Mark to members and friends of Temple Emanuel:

"Reconstruction has lost its powerful meaning and becomes a commonplace term. We are living, however, in a period of transition, and many readjustments have become necessary before we can resume the even tenor of our past uneventful lives. There are problems and changes which confront the Jew today. In his social, political and economic reconstruction he will naturally merge with the larger groups of his native land; these have no special significance to him as Jew. But a religious readjustment and reevaluation are imminent; these must be worked out by the Jews as a separate group.

"To help us grasp the new religious situation in its entirety I shall deliver a series of three sermons at our regular Friday night services. It is important that every Jew of the tri-cities hear these sermons—not so as to hear me, but because the talks constitute an important interpretation of a new spirit, a new attitude and a new kind of work undertaken by the world's Jewry. Services begin at 8 p. m. The public is invited. The subjects of the series are:

Friday, March 7—"Facing Life."
Friday, March 14—"The New Meaning of Purim."
Friday, March 21—"The Vineyard of the Lord of Hosts."
